

Service Animal Information

The owner/handler of this service animal is presenting this card voluntarily and is NOT required to by federal or state law.

This service animal and their access to a public accommodation are protected under the Federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Refusal to provide equal access to people with disabilities with service animals is a federal civil violation.

For questions regarding the ADA contact the United States Department of Justice Civil Rights Division at 1-

JUST FOR YOU!

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, businesses may ask:

- 1) Is this a service animal? or
- 2) What tasks does the service animal perform?

Businesses may not:

- 1) Require special identification for the animal.
- 2) Ask about your disability.
- 3) Charge additional fees because of the animal.
- 4) Refuse admission or service, segregate or treat you less favorably than others.

