

Nebraska Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy Program

Concerned about IEPs and the educational experience of students with disabilities?

Consider becoming an educational advocate.

An Advocate can:

- Attend school meetings with you
- Be available if you have a concern and are not sure where to begin
- Provide an opportunity for you to vocalize your concerns, hopes, and ideas on how to support your child's educational experience
- Guide you through the IEP process

The Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy Project matches Advocates with families seeking support at their child's IEP meeting.

Consider becoming an advocate.

Learn about:

- The importance and positive impact of inclusive education on all children
- The laws that guide the Individualized Education Process
- Assessments schools use for identification and how to read them
- What Assistive Technology can do to enhance educational experiences
- School culture and how to communicate with school personnel
- Helping others navigate the Special Education system

Training beginning September 13, 2022.

To learn more about the training click: Training Letter

For a training schedule click: Training Schedule

For more information call: Pat Cottingham at Disability Rights Nebraska

(402) 474-3183

Or visit our web page: Inclusive Education Lay Advocacy

The Protection and Advocacy System for the State of Nebraska. This training is made possible by funding support from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services - Administration for Community Living; Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; and U.S. Department of Education. Disability Rights Nebraska is an independent 501(c) (3) non-profit organization. These contents are solely the responsibility of Disability Rights Nebraska and do not necessarily represent the official views of these funding agencies.